that goes forth from my mouth;
It shall not return to me empty,
but shall do what pleases me,
achieving the end for which I sent it.*

C.A.R.E CORNER

When we began this column series back in March, we introduced the theme of taking a look at what Jesus said and did and how we are called to imitate those things as his disciples. God made us humans in his image and likeness (Genesis 1:26). We are to be his representatives on earth. So how can we live in the fullness of our humanity? By living like Jesus did. Even Jesus took his troubles, his needs and his wants to God in prayer. In his humanity, he too reached the limits of his human resources, just as we do. Jesus invites us to not just believe what he believed, but to live his lifestyle and his way of being. And that way of being — which is holy — is possible.

Perhaps we first need to let go of some of our attachments to worldly things in order to be ready to be transformed and configured to the mind and heart of Christ. Less dependence on external, physical things can pave the way for us to experience deeper, inner, spiritual things. It's a never-ending, ongoing process. What Jesus said and did points us to what it means to put on the mind of Christ and live in imitation of Christ. There is no better way to live. As Christians, we're reminded that we are to be the light of the world. So we must let our light shine for the benefit of others. The world we live in has always been in need of the holy.

School of Prayer

Visio Divina – Praying with Art

Led by Chari Rosales, the next experience in our monthly School of Prayer series, “Visio Divina — Praying with Art,” is Wednesday, July 15. Choose either session — 10:00 am or 7:00 pm.

Art has been for centuries a privileged way to commune with God, in whose image we are made. Dip into the treasury of religious art to experience connection and beauty. Throughout most of history, the majority of people could not read, so art was the catechism. Come, direct your gaze to the divine. To assure your place, please register by July 13 at readmin@stapostle.org or call 630.355.8980, x118.

Steubenville Participants

We welcome back our teens who have just returned from the Steubenville Joliet Conference, exploring the theme of Worthy, and encountering the love of Christ. We pray that the enthusiasm of the weekend stays with them, and that with the Holy Spirit they are moved to share that enthusiasm with others.

Tuition Angel Donations

As we prepare for the upcoming school year, we invite parishioners to consider becoming a Tuition Angel and helping support St. Thomas families. Your generous donation can make a meaningful difference by easing the burden of tuition for students whose families are facing financial hardship. Every gift, large or small, helps ensure that children in our parish community have the opportunity to receive a faith-filled education and continue growing in their relationship with Christ.

If you are able to contribute or would like more information about supporting our Tuition Angel program, please contact Jenni Kennedy at readmin@stapostle.org. Thank you for your kindness and generosity.

Share your Faith!

The presence of caring adults and teens makes a lasting impact on a child's faith journey. Help is always needed in Faith Formation — whether serving as a parking lot attendant, greeting families, assisting as a catechist or aide, or stepping in as a substitute when needed. High School classes meet Sunday evenings, while PreK-8th grade classes meet Saturday mornings or Tuesdays. Please reach out to Jenni Kennedy at readmin@stapostle.org to express interest or with any questions. We'd love to hear from you!

We're Hiring!

We are seeking a passionate and committed leader to join the Faith Formation Team and serve as the Director of Religious Education to guide our young people through faith formation and preparation of the sacraments.

For the full job description, please scan the QR Code, check the St. Thomas website, or reach out to Laura Kmec at lkmec@stapostle.org.

Little Sheep Club

The Little Sheep Club is open every Sunday during the 9:30 am Mass. Children walking age 1 to age 4 are welcome to join their little peers to play while parents/guardians worship in the Church. No pre-registration required. Any questions, or if you would like to join this ministry, please reach out to Laura Kmec at lkmec@stapostle.org.

Religious Education Registration

Religious Education from children Pre-K through High School for the 2026-27 school year, is now open.

Register your child(ren) now to secure their spot. Classes are offered Tuesdays and Saturdays for children Pre-K-8th grade, and Sundays for High School Confirmation preparation. Register online through our website or use the QR codes.

No matter your age, there is a place for you to grow in faith at St. Thomas. Please reach out to Ann Cotner at acotner@stapostle.org or Laura Kmec at lkmec@stapostle.org if you have specific questions or want to join and are not sure where to begin.

All are always welcome.

Magnifica Humanitas Pope Leo XIV's Vision for the Future

*"What direction shall we choose as people and as a human community?"
~ Pope Leo
XIV*

Join us for a two-part summer series exploring Pope Leo XIV's first encyclical, Magnifica Humanitas. In this powerful document, Pope Leo invites us to reflect on two possible futures — one shaped by technology and artificial intelligence, and the other grounded in the dignity and potential of the human person. Through small group discussion, we will consider how faith can guide our choices and shape our shared future.

Join us Tuesdays, July 14 and 21, from 7:00–8:30 pm. Contact readmin@stapostle.org or call 630.355.8980, x118 to register.

This opportunity is hosted by Adult Faith Formation and the Office of Outreach and Social Justice.

Standing with Haitian Families

In the wake of recent Supreme Court decisions affecting Temporary Protected Status (TPS), hundreds of thousands of people — many from Haiti — now face an uncertain and troubling future in the United States.

The faith community of St. Thomas has been blessed to witness the faith, hard work and resilience of the Haitian people, especially our brothers and sisters in Duchity. We have seen their beautiful faces, and through the words of Fr. Frantzdy, we have heard stories of the unimaginable hardships so many continue to endure in Haiti.

Bishop Brendan Cahill of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops reminds us of the moral stakes: "Revoking the legal status of hundreds of thousands of people ... creates a moral crisis when returning to their country of origin is not a safe or reasonable option. ... We as a nation cannot turn a blind eye to such an injustice."

For Haitian families — many of whom have lived, worked and worshiped in our communities for years — this decision brings urgent concerns about safety, family unity and human dignity. The Church continues to call on leaders to act with compassion and courage and to seek solutions that uphold the dignity of every person.

As a parish with a long-standing relationship with the people of Haiti, and as a parish committed to outreach and social justice, we invite you to:

- Pray for those at risk of displacement and for wise, humane leadership
- Learn about the realities facing Haitian migrants
- Stay engaged as opportunities arise to advocate and support those affected

For those who wish to take action, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops offers a way to contact the U.S. Senate and urge leaders to protect our Haitian neighbors: <https://www.votervoice.net/USCCB/Campaigns/138390/Respond>

"Forcibly sending families to dire conditions is a legacy all leaders should seek to avoid," Bishop Cahill urges. May we respond with faith, compassion, and a renewed commitment to stand with our brothers and sisters in need.

Catholic Social Teaching: A Refresher

Catholic Social Teaching is one of the Church's great treasures: a way of seeing the world through the lens of the Gospel and responding with love, justice and mercy. It reminds us that our faith is not meant to stay inside the walls of the church. The Eucharist we celebrate sends us out to care for our neighbors, protect human dignity and work for the common good.

The U.S. bishops often summarize Catholic Social Teaching in seven themes: Life and Dignity of the Human Person; Call to Family, Community and Participation; Rights and Responsibilities; Option for the Poor and Vulnerable; The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers; Solidarity; and Care for God's Creation.

Catholic Social Teaching is not a political platform or a checklist. It is a Gospel-shaped way of life. It asks us to pray with open hearts, form our consciences, listen to those who suffer and act with courage and compassion.

As we continue to be the faith community of St. Thomas, may Catholic Social Teaching refresh our vision and renew our commitment to be the hands and feet of Christ in the world. This week, consider one simple question: Who is God inviting me to notice, serve, defend or accompany?

Habitat 2026

The St. Thomas Habitat for Humanity team returned home safely after a meaningful week in Tutwiler, Mississippi. During their time there, the team worked on Houses 49 and 50. At House 49, they added finishing touches to the bathroom and kitchen and installed hardware throughout the home. Next month, House 49 will be turned over to the homeowner, making a long-awaited dream come true.

One of the most exciting parts of the week was the work our Habitat team completed on House 50. Before the team arrived, a storm had damaged the roof tarp. Our volunteers were able to repair the tarp and then completely roof the home. Throughout the week, they worked alongside the homeowner, making the experience especially meaningful.

The team included Mary Ann Rempe, Bob Hartmann, Marcia Hartmann, Thuc Vu, Maria Prekop, Michael Emmert, Doug Surch, Maria McAdams, Caden McAdams and Macy McAdams.

We are grateful for the generosity, hard work and faith-filled witness of our Habitat volunteers. Their service continues to make a lasting difference for families in Tutwiler, and we look forward to sharing more updates as these homes are completed and welcomed by their new homeowners.

The dates for Habitat 2027 are finalized. Mark your calendars for June 13–19 and plan to be part of the St. Thomas Habitat 2027 team.

Prayer for Selection of a New Bishop

Although a specific timeframe is unknown, a new bishop will eventually be selected for the Diocese of Joliet. In this time of waiting, we can actively pray ...

Gracious and loving God, you shepherd your Church with wisdom and care.

In this time of waiting, we place our diocese into your hands as a new bishop is chosen.

Send your Holy Spirit upon all entrusted with this decision.

Grant them wisdom, courage, and hearts attentive to your will.

Raise up a shepherd who will lead with humility and compassion, who will listen before speaking, who will walk with the people entrusted to his care, and who will proclaim the Gospel with faithfulness and hope.

May our new bishop be a voice for justice, a servant of unity, a comfort to the wounded, and a witness to the love of Christ for all people.

As we wait, keep us rooted in prayer, open to the movement of your Spirit, and united as one Church.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

On Life's Journey

July 24 is International Self-Care Day

Jesus taught us about self-care, often going off alone after preaching, to pray and rest. Take the month of July to reflect on your self-care options. Consider:

- Reflecting on your daily habits. Set simple, achievable self-care goals — whether that's drinking more water, moving more or setting boundaries.
- Sharing your self-care routine or tips on social media to inspire others.
- Attending a wellness workshop, a retreat, class or webinar on nutrition, mental health, fitness, mindfulness or prayer.
- Take time to rest, unplug and reset — make the day a personal retreat from busyness and burnout.

Community Resources

Did you know?

The Naperville Police and Fire Department have several resources available to assist with a safe response to a mental/behavioral health crisis.

- 911 is the preferred number for all emergency calls.
- 988 is the National Suicide and Crisis line that connects you with a mental health professional to talk with. This is NOT a service to use in an emergency. Please dial 911.
- Smart911.com: Set up a profile on this national database and in case of an emergency, the police can pull up information about your loved one such as diagnoses, physical disabilities or medications.
- Mobile CTI: Is a Naperville service used by the Police department Monday–Friday from 1:00–10:00 pm. In response to a 911 call for a mental health crisis, a police officer and a counselor will be dispatched to the scene to triage the situation.
- The CART program (Community Advocate Response Team), managed by the Fire Department, provides for specially trained EMTs to respond to a mental/behavioral health crisis. This team works jointly with the Police Department to respond to 911 calls.
- Caring Hands is a database managed by the Naperville Police Department. This program provides first responders with critical information about you or loved ones with developmental, cognitive, mental, medical and/or physical disabilities who may require special assistance during an emergency or nonemergency situation. See the City of Naperville website at naperville.il.us/ for more information and to download the form.
