Letter from the Bishop

Dear Friends,

On the weekend of April 23-24, our diocese will take up a second collection for the Catholic Home Missions Appeal.

Home mission dioceses are those dioceses in the United States and its territories that need outside help to provide basic pastoral services, such as the Mass, the sacraments, religious education and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters and laypeople. These dioceses often face fragile financial situations, vast distances or difficult terrain. Nearly 40 percent of the dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home missions.

We are one Catholic Church. What happens to one of us, affects us all. As Pope Francis notes in Fratelli Tutti, “we need to develop the awareness that nowadays we are either all saved together or no one is saved.” (Paragraph 137).

Let us remember our brothers and sisters in Christ in home mission dioceses so they may share fully in our Catholic faith.

Paz y bien,

Most Reverend Ronald A. Hicks

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord: Alleluia! Christ Is Risen!

There are 25 readings chosen for the vigil and day of Easter. There are so many we can feel overwhelmed. The gospel acclamation gives this summary:

Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed; let us then feast with joy in the Lord.

As paschal lamb, Jesus, who died for us, is the Risen Christ. For us all! We feast with joy!

- What needs to be dead in me so I can live in Easter joy?
- What fills me with joy?
- How will I joyfully behave?

Join Us!

Has it been a while since you've graced the doors of St. Thomas? St. Thomas is a spiritual home, a place where people can form relationships, sink roots, grow and be supported in their lives and in their relationship with God and one another. Please join us and realize that you belong to us, for you belong to Christ! Come back to us and find once again a place to bring your burdens and find love and mercy. Now and always, all are welcome here!

Easter Blessings

From our homes to yours, may you experience the light, love and joy of this holy season! We pray that Christ's peace and love may flow with you gently as you experience God's embrace.

Prayer

*The Risen Christ is with us today,
and he continues to need each one of you.
Jesus needs your eyes to continue to see.
He needs your strength to continue to work.
He needs your voice to continue to teach.
He needs your hands to continue to bless.
He needs your heart to continue to love.
And Jesus needs your whole being to continue to build his body, the Church.*

As we believe, so let us live!

C.A.R.E. CORNER

On this Easter Sunday, our current pontiff, Pope Francis, leads our universal Church in the celebration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. As we continue our series on saints, it's fitting to focus on some great saints who served as popes. The two we're going to highlight were given the moniker "the Great" as they were considered to be standouts among all the popes. The first such pope was Leo, who was elected to the papacy in the year 440. Leo was born in Rome and became a teacher, preacher and writer on doctrinal matters. He left us many letters and homilies that helped strengthen the faithful. He also took care of the sick and the poor and was known for his many works of mercy toward his flock in Rome. Heresies were raging throughout the Church during Leo's papacy. But Leo stood firm and clear in the teachings of the Church. As pope, he convened the Council of Chalcedon in the year 451, which declared that Jesus was one person with two distinct natures — one divine and one human. The Council Fathers exclaimed "Peter has spoken through the mouth of Leo."

Leo was also quite the diplomat during an especially trying time in the history of our Church. When the Roman Empire was taking its last breaths and had no army to speak of, Leo left the city limits of Rome and went out to meet with Attila and the Huns. The year was 452 and somehow Leo convinced Attila not to sack the city. The Vandals followed the Huns in 455 and once again Leo's diplomacy helped avert the burning and final destruction of the city. Leo the Great died in 461 and is buried near the tomb of St. Peter. As we might expect, he also carries the title of Doctor of the Church.

Our Children Are Our Greatest Blessing

Our children are truly one of life's and God's choicest blessings. We nurture and guide them, love them and protect them. In scripture we hear how children are a gift from God — every single life, every single child.

Whether they're bringing parents pride and joy, or whether they are teaching us how to be more patient and forgiving, our children are a treasure that even Jesus recognized and affirmed.

In the rich book of Matthew, Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." (19:14) We also hear the following: "When his disciples asked Jesus, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?", he called a child over, placed it in their midst, and said, "Amen, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven.

Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoever receives one child such as this in my name receives me." (Matthew 18:1-5).

All Saints is honored and humbled to join with parents in the faith formation of their precious children. At All Saints, students can become and be authentic and strong in their faith and beliefs, ready to live a life with God at the center. Children can grow kind and compassionate hearts, ready to serve others and lead by God's own example, so that others may see Christ's love in them.

All Saints has a few select openings remaining for this coming fall in preschool through grade 8, and would be honored to welcome your student and family to ASCA for the 2022–2023 school year that begins on Wednesday, August 17.

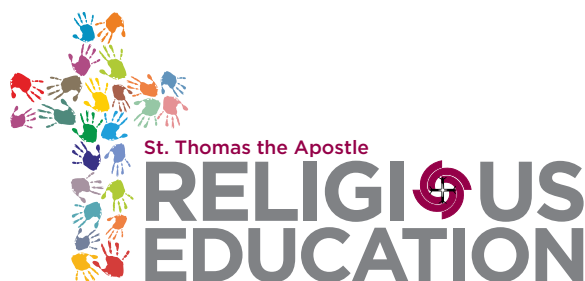

Won't you join us?

First Eucharist Liturgies- Communion Procedures

First Eucharist Masses are on the following dates:

- Saturday, April 23 at 4:30 pm Mass
- Sunday, April 24 at 9:30 am Mass
- Sunday, April 24 at 11:15 am Mass
- Saturday, April 30 at 4:30 pm Mass
- Sunday, May 1 at 9:30 am Mass
- Sunday, May 1 at 11:15 am Mass

During these liturgies the First Communicants and parents are invited to come forward first to the front stations. Other guests in those rows and the rest of the assembly will wait to receive communion, allowing all First Communicants and their parents to receive the Eucharist first. Eucharistic ministers will proceed to their assigned stations as usual but will remain facing the altar at their assigned stations until all First Communicants and parents have received. Once all the First Communicants have received the Eucharist, host greeters will invite the rest of the assembly to receive, including the other guests in the First Communicant's pew. We thank you for your patience as the children and their parents receive Eucharist and thank you for the prayers you have said for these children.

First Communion Masses and First Communicants

In January, our First Communicants and families committed to preparing for the sacrament of Eucharist. As they finish their preparation, we ask the faith community to hold these families in prayer. Below is a list of First Communicants and their First Eucharist Mass. If you have neighbors and friends receiving their First Communion, we invite you to attend their Mass. In the loving spirit of St. Thomas, please welcome these First Communicants, their families and guests.

Scripture Safari, Our Vacation Bible School

Mark your calendars now for Scripture Safari, our Vacation Bible School. It is June 13–17, 2022. Our theme this year is “Concrete and Cranes Under God’s Construction.” Registration opened April 1, 2022, and is available in the Gathering Area and the Faith Formation Office.

It promises to be an exciting week. Come join the fun!

Being Easter (Young) People

The troubles and stresses of our current world can get us down. But, we are Easter people! And often, it is our young people who are models, to us, of Easter people, sharing one of their most valuable gifts: their time and energy. Be encouraged by these examples of service: the young people who were part of this year’s Living Stations and gave of their time and energy to provide meaningful prayer for the community, the young people who are anxious to be part of mission trips, and those students who faithfully come to Teens with Character seeking ways to model Christian life.

This generous spirit of service is so present in our young people. Although they are not looking for recognition or thanks, let’s encourage them with it anyway! When we think what it means to be Easter people, let us look to our youth who are blessing us with their model of quiet, unselfish love.

Week of Hope Mission Trip

This year, St. Thomas middle school students will be part of a Week of Hope, from June 19-24, in Kenosha, Wisc. Week of Hope is a community service mission trip where young people serve alongside seasoned local ministries and nonprofits to make a lasting difference through meaningful community service. These young people will be missionary disciples in the name of St. Thomas. Easter Prayer from the Outreach and Social Justice Office

The people of St. Thomas are beacons of hope and prayerful concern. Your examples of compassionate service are a witness to the miracle of Easter. May you and your loved ones be blessed abundantly this Easter Season.

Mike, Anne and Sally

We Stand in Christ's Magnificence

Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

Christ, help us to recognize practices that enable us to feel superior to others.

Our racism, sexism, ageism, favoritism, etc.

Practices that are not healthy or productive, which we often find entrenched in our psyche.

Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

Christ, give us the freedom to step into society with tools to bring about the reign of God here and now.

Challenge us to promote the reign of God by utilizing: our charisma for justice, our optimism for positive change, and our altruism for right action.

Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

Unbind us from our perfectionism. Call us to do something with a compassionate heart.

Unbind us from our cynicism. Small actions can mushroom into large initiatives.

Unbind us from our egotism. Dialogue and shared wisdom uncover unique solutions.

Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

The miracle at the tomb is the miracle of our ability to change.

To embrace ecumenism and listen to the beautiful traditions of other religions.

To embrace minimalism in one area of our hectic, overbooked life.

To embrace bilingualism and pledge to listen more and speak less.

Christ does not stand in magnificence over us.

Christ stands in magnificence with us.

Christ stands in magnificence with us today, this glorious Easter Sunday!

Christ stands in magnificence with us every day, most especially when we are broken or struggling.

That is the miracle of Easter!

May the power of the Risen Christ sustain us, protect us, and motivate us to continue to speak up, to call out injustice, and to use our full potential to be Christ's hands, feet, and heart on the road from Calvary to the miracle at the tomb.

Amen.

HAVE FAITH. END HUNGER.

Bread for the World Elementary School Advocacy

Letters to Senators

Bread for the World is a Christian Organization in Washington, DC that provides nonpartisan policy analysis on hunger and strategies to end it. It has been educating opinion leaders, policymakers and the public about hunger in the United States and abroad since 1975. Each year, they conduct an "Offering of Letters" to members of Congress.

Elementary School Faith Formation and the OSJ Office recently partnered to introduce advocacy to the youth as a way to put their faith into action, as we are all called to do. With the approval of their parents, the fourth and fifth grade Elementary Religious Education students were presented with the opportunity to sign a letter to one of our Illinois Senators asking them to help provide food to children in need in our country and throughout the world.

The letter

Dear Senator _____

I am writing to you about hunger in this world. As a follower of Jesus, we care about those who are hungry in the United States and other countries. It is important that we as a country use our abundance to help those in need. When children and families have enough good food to eat, they can grow healthy and strong. Please support bills that help our country aid those who need good food globally.

Name _____

Age _____

In May, the entire parish will be offered the opportunity to advocate on this issue.

May Peace Prevail on Earth New Peace Pole Signs

Pray for Peace

In light of recent events in Ukraine, two temporary signs have been placed next to the Peace Pole, one on either side. "May Peace Prevail on Earth" is written in the Russian language on one sign and in the Ukrainian language on the other. As you leave church on Easter Sunday, or any time, consider stopping by the Peace Pole to say a prayer for peace in Ukraine, throughout the world and in our hearts.

The Peace Pole on the St. Thomas grounds is located outside the doors to the Gathering Area. The pole was dedicated on Sunday, September 17, 2017. Peace Poles are one of the most recognized international peace symbols and monuments around the world. Over 250,000 poles have been "planted" in almost every country. The Peace Pole Project was introduced to the United States in 1986. Peace Poles symbolize the oneness of humanity and the common wish for a world at peace. They remind us to think, speak and act in the spirit of peace and harmony and to stand as a silent visual for peace to prevail on earth.

The St. Thomas Peace Pole, initiated by the Pax Christi ministry, is a six-sided stainless steel pole, about eight feet tall once the pole is in the ground. The words "May Peace Prevail on Earth" is cut into the pole in six languages: Arabic, English, Hebrew, Haitian Creole for St. Thomas' twinning parish in Duchity, Haiti, Lakota for St. Thomas' twinning parish on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota, and Spanish for St. Thomas' twinning parish in Aurora, Illinois.

Instructors: Tina Lueckhoff and

What is Mental Health First Aid (MHFA)?

You are more likely to encounter someone – friend, family member or neighbor – in an emotional crisis than someone having a heart attack. Just as CPR teaches you how to respond to someone in a medical crisis, MHFA prepares participants to assist someone experiencing a mental health crisis. You will learn situational skills to intervene and help someone experiencing a mental health problem.

You will learn:

- Signs and symptoms of mental illness
- Risk and safety assessment
- Intervention strategies

How Blended Mental Health First Aid Works:

After completing a two-hour self-paced online class, First Aiders will participate in a six hour in-person instructor led class.

From the Office of the Parish Nurse How to Take Your Pulse

Your pulse is your heart rate, or the number of times your heart beats in one minute. You can take your pulse using the radial artery in your wrist or the carotid artery in your neck.

FAITH COMMUNITY NURSE
St. Thomas the Apostle

Some medical conditions can be a factor in determining the best place for you to take your pulse. For example, if you have heart disease or longstanding diabetes, it's best to use the artery on your wrist.

General instructions for taking your pulse

To get an accurate pulse:

- Take your pulse the same time each day.
- Sit down and rest several minutes before taking your pulse.
- Count your pulse for a full 60 seconds unless told otherwise by your health care provider.

Taking your radial pulse

1. With your palm up, look at the area between your wrist bone and the tendon on the thumb side of your wrist. Your radial pulse can be taken on either wrist.
2. Use the tip of the index and third fingers of your other hand to feel the pulse in the radial artery between your wrist bone and the tendon on the thumb side of your wrist.
3. Apply just enough pressure so you can feel each beat. Do not push too hard or you will obstruct the blood flow.
4. Watch the second hand on your watch or a clock as you count how many times you feel your pulse.
5. Record your pulse rate and inform your primary physician if necessary.

Taking your carotid pulse

1. Find the area on one side of your neck near your windpipe. Your carotid pulse can be taken on either side of your neck.
2. Put the tip of your index and long finger in the groove of your neck along your windpipe to feel the pulse in your carotid artery. Do not press on the carotid artery on both sides of your neck at the same time. This may cause you to feel lightheaded or dizzy, or possibly faint.
3. Apply just enough pressure so you can feel each beat. Do not push too hard or you will obstruct the blood flow.
4. Watch the second hand on your watch or a clock as you count how many times you feel your pulse rate.
5. Record your pulse rate and inform your primary physician if necessary.

Ukraine Relief Monetary Donations

If you would like to support Ukraine and Ukrainian refugees, the current recommendation is to donate to Catholic Relief Services (CRS). Catholic Relief Services — CRS — is the official relief and development organization of the Catholic Church in the US. CRS and their partners are preparing and need immediate support to meet both ongoing needs, as well as those related to families forced to flee their homes. CRS and Caritas partners are on the ground across Ukraine and in bordering countries, working to provide safe shelter, hot meals, hygiene supplies, fuel to keep warm, transport to safe areas, counseling support and more.

When you donate, you provide immediate assistance for your Ukrainian sisters and brothers affected by this crisis.

- To donate online, go to <https://bit.ly/3hbagDJ>
- Check can be written to "CRS" with "Ukraine" in the memo and sent to:

*Why do you look for the living among the dead?
 He is not here, but has risen"
 Luke 24:5*

Pope Francis once said, "Why do you seek the living one among the dead? How often do we look for life among dead things, things that cannot give life, that are here today and gone tomorrow? Why do you seek the living one among the dead?" In other words, where do you put your priorities? How are you using the gifts God has given you?

How did Lent go for you this year? Did you take the time for prayer? Did you use your treasure to help others, like Catholic Relief Services or Ertha's Orphanage? Did you develop a talent of hospitality, welcoming others into your life or at St. Thomas. You need not wait until Lent next year to take good care of the gifts that God has given you. You can spend your Easter season not seeking life "among dead things," but setting your priorities straight.

Have a blessed Easter!
