Fr. Peter shares insights from a variety of voices on the Sunday readings.

The Body of Christ on Parade

Singing together during the distribution of holy Communion is one way of expressing the reality that we are one in the Eucharist, the Body of Christ. I once was taught to pray quietly during this time. If I'm honest, however, what I find myself doing after I return to my pew is watching others process past as they return from receiving Communion. They are a parade of holiness on the way. They are the longtime parishioners who have been making their way back to their pews in this way for decades — some now using walkers or canes, others with a bit of a slow hobble. There are teenagers, too. Some, from the expressions on their faces, look like their parents made them come, while others look impressively prayerful. Young parents, too, caring for a new baby in their arms, and another couple holding a two-year-old's hand as he tugs to escape and be free. And middle-aged single people, now halfway through this life's journey. Young couples, as well, those just married or engaged and so obviously in love, but also widows and widowers longing for the love they once knew. All of these are the body of Christ, the very temple of God built upon the foundation that is Christ Jesus, as Paul notes so well. This is why I watch them processing back to their pews. This, too, is prayer.

~Fr. Joseph Juknialis

C.A.R.E CORNER

Saul, who after his dramatic conversion became known as Paul, can certainly be counted among the great evangelists in our Christian history. As soon as he was prayed over and baptized (Acts 9:20), he “began at once to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.” That was a 180 from where he started, which included threatening and persecuting Christian disciples. Paul’s speaking and debating skills made him many enemies, who conspired to kill him.

Ultimately, Paul undertook three lengthy mission trips over which he spread the good news of the Risen Christ, started many church communities and welcomed many new Christian disciples into the fold of the Church. His traveling companions included Timothy, who had a Jewish mother and a Greek father. In their travels (see Acts 16:4), “they handed on to the people for observance the decisions reached by the apostles and presbyters in Jerusalem.” And so the Church continued to grow. Not all of us are called to be traveling missionaries. But as members of the Catholic Church, we are called to share in the Church’s mission to evangelize and spread the Good New of Jesus Christ, even if that’s only in our little corner of the world.

Advent by Candlelight — “Holy Notes in Unexpected Places”

Wednesday, December 3 at 7:00 pm in the Lighthouse

With all the busyness of the pre-Christmas season and secular Christmas music filling the airwaves before Thanksgiving, it’s sometimes hard to maintain the spirit of Advent. This year’s annual intergenerational women’s gathering will focus on how we can find the sacredness of Advent in the most unlikely seasonal music. Come join us for an evening of fellowship, food and faith.

Generations of Faith at St. Thomas the Apostle

One of the greatest blessings in our parish community is seeing faith passed lovingly from one generation to the next. At St. Thomas the Apostle, families have worshiped, served and grown together for more than forty years — each generation building upon the foundation of those before them.

This week, we celebrate two beautiful examples of that legacy. The Doyle family — three generations strong — continues to share their gifts with our parish, including four members of the children’s choir (left photo). We also honor the Schweig-Casoglos family representing three generations united in faith, love and service to our church. Thank you to these families, and to all who nurture faith within your homes. Your example reminds us that the Church is not only a place we go, but a family we belong to — rooted in Christ, growing together in love.

St. Thomas Land Acknowledgment

During the month of November, a Land Acknowledgment will be read as we begin our weekend and Thanksgiving Day liturgies. A Land Acknowledgment is a formal statement that recognizes and respects Indigenous Peoples as the traditional stewards of the land.

From a faith perspective, the Land Acknowledgment is read before liturgies to recognize that long before we dedicated St. Thomas as a place of prayer, there were First Nations for whom this very land was sacred. We, also, are called to continue good stewardship of the land that was originated by indigenous peoples.

Land Acknowledgment Statement

As we gather for worship this day in this sacred space, we acknowledge that the land on which we gather is the ancestral homeland of the Council of Three Fires: the Ojibwe, Odawa and Potawatomi Nations. More than a dozen other Nations called this region of Northeastern Illinois home. Until their forced removal, this land was their home, the source of their food, their gathering space, their place of healing, and their sacred space. We recognize the enduring presence of Indigenous peoples connected to and on this land. We commit to continually learning how to be better stewards of the land we inhabit and the people we encounter.

Hurricane Melissa Hits Duchity

Both Fr. Frantzdy and Ertha have asked for prayers because of Hurricane Melissa wreaking havoc in Duchity. In two recent WhatsApp messages from Fr. Frantzdy, he sent the following update:

Good Morning. I hope you are doing good. Please pray for us. Since Tuesday we are facing a hurricane in Duchity and in Haiti in general. Today, it turns to level 5 with rains and winds. At the rectory, we are safe. But many homes and farmers' lands may be destroyed.

A later message indicated, Actually, the wind is stronger in Duchity. We are hosting people in the basement of the church.

We have learned that many homes are damaged. The tin roofs on homes have blown away. Gardens have been destroyed. Banana trees have been uprooted. School sessions could not take place.

Please do what this faith community does so well ... pray! Thanks!

We Are Called to Respect Life

Pope John Paul II prayed that all who believe in Jesus would proclaim the gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time. We invite you to join our St. Thomas Respect Life group to help us proclaim that message of love to our parish and to the wider community.

Our next Respect Life Ministry meeting is Wednesday, November 19, at 7:00 pm on Zoom. If you would like to receive a zoom invite, please email Peggy Goralski at pgoralski@stapostle.org.

In these difficult times, we all need to do what we can to stand for respect for life and dignity for all. We hope you feel called to join us. We will discuss plans for our annual Christmas Swaddling Project, and we would love to have your help.

Art and Craft Fair November 15

St. Thomas the Apostle's 26th Annual Art and Craft Fair will take place Saturday, November 15, from 10:00 am–3:00 pm in the Gym. You will be able to browse beautiful artwork, an assortment of craft items, jewelry, and, this year, even chocolates!

Mark your calendars! The Art and Craft Fair is the perfect place to find unique gifts for the special people in your lives.

Letters of Solidarity

It has been a practice of the Inclusive Justice Initiative Ministry at St. Thomas to write letters of solidarity in response to hate crimes and situations of unjust treatment of others. Recently, letters of solidarity were sent to Annunciation School in Minneapolis, Annunciation Catholic Church in Minneapolis and Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Grand Blanc, Michigan.

These letters are sent in the name of St. Thomas and are signed by Fr. Peter and Carrie Wujek (member of the Inclusive Justice Initiative). The letter to Annunciation Catholic School conveyed the following message:

To Mr. DeBoer, families and staff of Annunciation School,

The people of St. Thomas the Apostle Church in Naperville, IL, extend our deepest sympathy for the violence inflicted upon worshipers at the Church of the Annunciation in August. The murder of Fletcher and Harper and the wounding of 21 others in attendance at Mass is heartbreaking. A school Mass is a joyous celebration and to have violence intrude upon it in such a devastating way requires all of us to strive to end such terrible actions in our world.

As you continue to mourn those who died and welcome back those who have survived, we recognize that each subsequent act of gun violence in our nation is a vivid reminder of your own pain. We stand in solidarity with you to resist and reject the rhetoric of hatred wherever it is present.

"Peace be with you" was Jesus' greeting to his followers in times of heightened fear and doubt. Your hundred-year history is a testament to God's light in the world. We offer our support to embrace this peace of Christ which embodies God's profound love. It is our prayer that you feel not only this peace, but also the outpouring of love for your community.

In prayer and solidarity.

Standing with our Immigrant Sisters and Brothers

As followers of Christ, we are called to welcome the stranger and see in every person the face of God. In recent weeks, Cardinal Blasé Cupich has spoken with clarity and compassion about the treatment of immigrants and refugees in our community and in our nation. He reminds us that our response must be one of dignity, respect and love.

The Office of Outreach and Social Justice invites you to read Cardinal Cupich's full statement below:

My dear brothers and sisters, today I speak to you as your shepherd, but also as a fellow pilgrim who shares the pain of many of our immigrant communities. Families are being torn apart. Children are left in fear, and communities are shaken by immigration raids and detentions. These actions wound the soul of our city. Let me be clear. The church stands with migrants.

We stand with the mother who crosses borders to feed her children. We stand with the father who labors in silence to build a better future. We stand with the young person who dreams of safety and a better future. Our parishes and schools will not turn away those who seek comfort, and we will not be silent when dignity is denied in the enforcement of the law. It is essential that we respect the dignity of every human being.

Now I want to say something directly to those immigrants without documents. Most of you have been here for years. You have worked hard. You have raised families. You have contributed to this nation. You have earned our respect. As the Archbishop of Chicago, I will insist that you be treated with dignity. Americans should not forget that we all come from immigrant families.

You are our brothers and sisters. We stand with you. God bless you all.

Thanksgiving Turkey Drive

November 22 and 23

Don't forget to grab a reminder card next weekend! Volunteers will be collecting turkeys at all Masses, except for 6:00 pm Mass, the weekend of November 22–23. St. Thomas will provide turkeys to our Care Pantry families, Marie Wilkinson Pantry in Aurora, St. Nicholas Food Pantry, Queen of the Apostles Parish in Joliet—where Fr. Dof was formerly the pastor, and St. Patrick's Residence—next door to St. Thomas.

With the recent benefit cuts, we are expecting an increase in need this year. Please consider donating a Turkey to feed a family this Thanksgiving.

Thank you to all who generously donate this holiday season.

Welcome to America Pack Delivery in Aurora

Earlier this month, a household care pack, which included cleaning supplies, toiletries, etc., was delivered to a family of four from Afghanistan. Volunteers shared some staples from home with the family as they unpacked items. Tea and other treats were kindly offered as the family gave updates on their daily activities. Although the matriarch of the family passed away before she could join her family in their move to America, the family truly had a joyful and hopeful spirit.

Thank you to everyone who donated items for this welcome pack and thank you for making it possible for St. Thomas to do such meaningful work!
